

REGISTRATION SHOWS REPUBLICANS STRONG; MANY FAIL TO ENROLL

Out of 281,689 Voters Listed in Three Days 224,944 Were of Hughes Party, 32,878 Democrats

FEW WASHINGTON MEN

Registration figures for all three registration days as announced by the Board of Registration Commissioners, show an overwhelming Republican enrollment and the virtual absence of existence of the Washington party in Philadelphia.

In all 281,689 voters registered. This number, the leaders believe, will be increased to 290,000 voters by the national day of registration.

The Washington party enrollment is only 1,000. The Republicans totaled 224,944 and the Democrats 32,878.

Only 19,253 voters were listed as nonparty allegiance, and about 10,000 voters larger than ever before in the history of the city, the total being 110,812.

Two wards, according to the assessors' lists, are entitled to an increase of one assessor each. The assessors' figures, one member of the lower house being named for each 400 names that appear on the assessors' lists.

In the thirty-eighth ward, the number of Common Councilmen will be increased from four to the forty-second ward will be represented by three instead of two.

A comparison of the total registration for all three days, the names of those whose names are on the assessors' lists follows:

Table with 3 columns: Ward, Registrars, Assessors. Lists registration data for various wards.

The registration figures show a falling off of nearly 900 in the Fourteenth Ward, where Congressman John R. K. Scott, is the leader.

WILKES-BARRE POLICEMEN RESIGN

Men Quit Positions When Ordered to Ride Cars While Strike Is On

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., Oct. 9.—Rather than obey orders of Mayor John V. Koskoff to ride the trolley cars while the strike is on, an eighteen members of the regular police force in this city have quit their jobs.

Five more are expected to join in the walkout today.

Labor leaders, disgruntled at the action of the Mayor in using the police force to furnish protection to car riders, have been endeavoring to bring about a general walkout of all policemen and leave the city without any members of the regular force.

The Mayor announced that he intended to break up rioting by placing policemen on every car. Special men, whose names have been detailed for this work, are to be detailed for this work.

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 9.—There were no meetings scheduled Sunday for the city's political campaign, but the party reared at the Hotel Madison.

Today's meetings will be held in Fargo, Jamestown and Bismarck, N. D.

THREE RIDES OFF ON COP'S HORSE

AS OWNER STANDS TALKING NEARBY

by Policeman Turns as Animal Vanishes From Hitching Post Near Sixty-ninth Street Terminal—Fear Steed May Be Chopped Up for Food

When a horse that belonged to a woman and said cop was only a few minutes did not deter the thief in the least.

The thief approached the steed stealthily, and when he was within a few feet of the horse he gave him a friendly slap on the neck.

PHOTOPLAY THEATERS GREATLY BEAUTIFIED

Renovations Render Local Playhouses Artistic and Comfortable—Other Screen News

PROF. WILBUR WATTS Burlington, N. J., schoolmaster, who has been teaching half a century.

BURLINGTON TO HONOR GRAND OLD TEACHER

Testimonial Dinner Will Be Tendered Prof. William Watts on October 20

BURLINGTON, N. J., Oct. 9.—Burlington's grand old schoolmaster, Professor Wilbur Watts, will be tendered a testimonial dinner by citizens on the evening of October 20.

For fifty years Professor Watts has been supervising principal of the public schools of this city and the celebration of the completion of his half century of active work will be a notable event.

The dinner will be given in the social room of the Baptist Church. William E. Schermerhorn will be toastmaster. A reception and reunion will be held in the Sunday school room of the church for an hour preceding the dinner.

Professor Watts was seventy-four years old last month. He was born in Burlington in 1842. He first taught school when sixteen years old in Old Scott Schoolhouse in the suburbs of Burlington.

He was wounded in the battle of Stone River and was taken prisoner. He was honorably discharged in 1865 and returned to Burlington. Since 1868 he has been continuously identified with the schools of this city.

"BOASTFUL IGNORANCE" THEME OF HEALTH TALK

Transmission of Disease by Germs Definitely Proved, Says Doctor Dixon

HARRISBURG, Oct. 9.—"Boastful Ignorance" is the theme of State Health Commissioner Dixon in his "little talk" on health and hygiene today. He says:

"The boastfulness of ignorance is ordinarily not worthy of comment, but when it jeopardizes the health of other persons it is perhaps worth while to take up the subject."

"There is a class of individuals who jeer at all warnings regarding matters of hygiene. Statistics, however, show that these persons who violate the laws of Nature often meet an untimely death. Unfortunately, some give an ear to such foolish boasting and run headlong into danger."

The transmission of disease by germs is most frequently attacked by the ignorant. Those persons who accept without comment the statement that the world revolves upon its axis as a part of the solar system, and thousands of other things which they are incompetent to work out themselves, will bluster about the absurdity of germs causing disease.

Other things which they are incompetent to work out themselves, will bluster about the absurdity of germs causing disease. That typhoid fever, diphtheria, yellow fever, tuberculosis, anthrax, malaria and pneumonia are caused by germs has been proved as definitely as the fact that the world is round."

ONE SHOT; SEVEN JAILED IN FIGHT OVER CAR FARE

Refusal to Pay Starts Battle on Sixtieth Street

George Singleton, twenty-two years old, of 703 South Fifty-ninth street, is in a critical condition at the West Philadelphia Homeopathic Hospital from a bullet wound in the abdomen and seven young men and women were arrested and held under $500 bail, the result of a free-for-all fight on a Sixtieth street trolley car.

Five men and three women boarded the car at Sixtieth and Christian streets early yesterday and refused to pay fare, according to the police. The conductor appealed to Fulton, a policeman of the Fifty-ninth and Pine streets station. When Fulton left the car to call a patrol wagon the crowd set upon him. In the struggle that followed Fulton discharged his revolver and the bullet entered Singleton's abdomen.

Recruits Join Hughes Women's Campaigners Will Leave Minnesota for North Dakota Crusade for Votes

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 9.—There were no meetings scheduled Sunday for the city's political campaign, but the party reared at the Hotel Madison.

Today's meetings will be held in Fargo, Jamestown and Bismarck, N. D.

THEATRICAL BAEDERER

Metropolitan—'The House of Glass' with Mary Ryan. Six Star's drama of Marie's main pursuit, unlikely by the law, with a ring at circumstantial evidence.

Lyric—'The Soldier Boy' with Chiton Crawford. John Charles Thomas and Margaret Romberg. A sentimental tonic opera, with a cast of pro-Ally whitewash, and some songs in the grand manner by Cyril Harcourt.

Broadway—'A Lady's Name' with Marie Tompkins. A modern musical comedy, with songs by the 'grand manner' by Cyril Harcourt, very cleverly interpreted by Miss Tompkins and W. Graham Weaver.

Garrison—'The House of Glass' with Mary Ryan. Six Star's drama of Marie's main pursuit, unlikely by the law, with a ring at circumstantial evidence.

Lyric—'The Soldier Boy' with Chiton Crawford. John Charles Thomas and Margaret Romberg. A sentimental tonic opera, with a cast of pro-Ally whitewash, and some songs in the grand manner by Cyril Harcourt.

Broadway—'A Lady's Name' with Marie Tompkins. A modern musical comedy, with songs by the 'grand manner' by Cyril Harcourt, very cleverly interpreted by Miss Tompkins and W. Graham Weaver.

Garrison—'The House of Glass' with Mary Ryan. Six Star's drama of Marie's main pursuit, unlikely by the law, with a ring at circumstantial evidence.

Lyric—'The Soldier Boy' with Chiton Crawford. John Charles Thomas and Margaret Romberg. A sentimental tonic opera, with a cast of pro-Ally whitewash, and some songs in the grand manner by Cyril Harcourt.

Broadway—'A Lady's Name' with Marie Tompkins. A modern musical comedy, with songs by the 'grand manner' by Cyril Harcourt, very cleverly interpreted by Miss Tompkins and W. Graham Weaver.

Garrison—'The House of Glass' with Mary Ryan. Six Star's drama of Marie's main pursuit, unlikely by the law, with a ring at circumstantial evidence.

Lyric—'The Soldier Boy' with Chiton Crawford. John Charles Thomas and Margaret Romberg. A sentimental tonic opera, with a cast of pro-Ally whitewash, and some songs in the grand manner by Cyril Harcourt.

Broadway—'A Lady's Name' with Marie Tompkins. A modern musical comedy, with songs by the 'grand manner' by Cyril Harcourt, very cleverly interpreted by Miss Tompkins and W. Graham Weaver.

Garrison—'The House of Glass' with Mary Ryan. Six Star's drama of Marie's main pursuit, unlikely by the law, with a ring at circumstantial evidence.

Lyric—'The Soldier Boy' with Chiton Crawford. John Charles Thomas and Margaret Romberg. A sentimental tonic opera, with a cast of pro-Ally whitewash, and some songs in the grand manner by Cyril Harcourt.

Broadway—'A Lady's Name' with Marie Tompkins. A modern musical comedy, with songs by the 'grand manner' by Cyril Harcourt, very cleverly interpreted by Miss Tompkins and W. Graham Weaver.

Garrison—'The House of Glass' with Mary Ryan. Six Star's drama of Marie's main pursuit, unlikely by the law, with a ring at circumstantial evidence.

Lyric—'The Soldier Boy' with Chiton Crawford. John Charles Thomas and Margaret Romberg. A sentimental tonic opera, with a cast of pro-Ally whitewash, and some songs in the grand manner by Cyril Harcourt.

Broadway—'A Lady's Name' with Marie Tompkins. A modern musical comedy, with songs by the 'grand manner' by Cyril Harcourt, very cleverly interpreted by Miss Tompkins and W. Graham Weaver.

Garrison—'The House of Glass' with Mary Ryan. Six Star's drama of Marie's main pursuit, unlikely by the law, with a ring at circumstantial evidence.

Lyric—'The Soldier Boy' with Chiton Crawford. John Charles Thomas and Margaret Romberg. A sentimental tonic opera, with a cast of pro-Ally whitewash, and some songs in the grand manner by Cyril Harcourt.

Broadway—'A Lady's Name' with Marie Tompkins. A modern musical comedy, with songs by the 'grand manner' by Cyril Harcourt, very cleverly interpreted by Miss Tompkins and W. Graham Weaver.

Garrison—'The House of Glass' with Mary Ryan. Six Star's drama of Marie's main pursuit, unlikely by the law, with a ring at circumstantial evidence.

Lyric—'The Soldier Boy' with Chiton Crawford. John Charles Thomas and Margaret Romberg. A sentimental tonic opera, with a cast of pro-Ally whitewash, and some songs in the grand manner by Cyril Harcourt.

THEATRICAL BAEDERER

Metropolitan—'The House of Glass' with Mary Ryan. Six Star's drama of Marie's main pursuit, unlikely by the law, with a ring at circumstantial evidence.

Lyric—'The Soldier Boy' with Chiton Crawford. John Charles Thomas and Margaret Romberg. A sentimental tonic opera, with a cast of pro-Ally whitewash, and some songs in the grand manner by Cyril Harcourt.

Broadway—'A Lady's Name' with Marie Tompkins. A modern musical comedy, with songs by the 'grand manner' by Cyril Harcourt, very cleverly interpreted by Miss Tompkins and W. Graham Weaver.

Garrison—'The House of Glass' with Mary Ryan. Six Star's drama of Marie's main pursuit, unlikely by the law, with a ring at circumstantial evidence.

Lyric—'The Soldier Boy' with Chiton Crawford. John Charles Thomas and Margaret Romberg. A sentimental tonic opera, with a cast of pro-Ally whitewash, and some songs in the grand manner by Cyril Harcourt.

Broadway—'A Lady's Name' with Marie Tompkins. A modern musical comedy, with songs by the 'grand manner' by Cyril Harcourt, very cleverly interpreted by Miss Tompkins and W. Graham Weaver.

Garrison—'The House of Glass' with Mary Ryan. Six Star's drama of Marie's main pursuit, unlikely by the law, with a ring at circumstantial evidence.

Lyric—'The Soldier Boy' with Chiton Crawford. John Charles Thomas and Margaret Romberg. A sentimental tonic opera, with a cast of pro-Ally whitewash, and some songs in the grand manner by Cyril Harcourt.

Broadway—'A Lady's Name' with Marie Tompkins. A modern musical comedy, with songs by the 'grand manner' by Cyril Harcourt, very cleverly interpreted by Miss Tompkins and W. Graham Weaver.

Garrison—'The House of Glass' with Mary Ryan. Six Star's drama of Marie's main pursuit, unlikely by the law, with a ring at circumstantial evidence.

Lyric—'The Soldier Boy' with Chiton Crawford. John Charles Thomas and Margaret Romberg. A sentimental tonic opera, with a cast of pro-Ally whitewash, and some songs in the grand manner by Cyril Harcourt.

Broadway—'A Lady's Name' with Marie Tompkins. A modern musical comedy, with songs by the 'grand manner' by Cyril Harcourt, very cleverly interpreted by Miss Tompkins and W. Graham Weaver.

Garrison—'The House of Glass' with Mary Ryan. Six Star's drama of Marie's main pursuit, unlikely by the law, with a ring at circumstantial evidence.

Lyric—'The Soldier Boy' with Chiton Crawford. John Charles Thomas and Margaret Romberg. A sentimental tonic opera, with a cast of pro-Ally whitewash, and some songs in the grand manner by Cyril Harcourt.

Broadway—'A Lady's Name' with Marie Tompkins. A modern musical comedy, with songs by the 'grand manner' by Cyril Harcourt, very cleverly interpreted by Miss Tompkins and W. Graham Weaver.

Garrison—'The House of Glass' with Mary Ryan. Six Star's drama of Marie's main pursuit, unlikely by the law, with a ring at circumstantial evidence.

Lyric—'The Soldier Boy' with Chiton Crawford. John Charles Thomas and Margaret Romberg. A sentimental tonic opera, with a cast of pro-Ally whitewash, and some songs in the grand manner by Cyril Harcourt.

Broadway—'A Lady's Name' with Marie Tompkins. A modern musical comedy, with songs by the 'grand manner' by Cyril Harcourt, very cleverly interpreted by Miss Tompkins and W. Graham Weaver.

Garrison—'The House of Glass' with Mary Ryan. Six Star's drama of Marie's main pursuit, unlikely by the law, with a ring at circumstantial evidence.

Lyric—'The Soldier Boy' with Chiton Crawford. John Charles Thomas and Margaret Romberg. A sentimental tonic opera, with a cast of pro-Ally whitewash, and some songs in the grand manner by Cyril Harcourt.

Broadway—'A Lady's Name' with Marie Tompkins. A modern musical comedy, with songs by the 'grand manner' by Cyril Harcourt, very cleverly interpreted by Miss Tompkins and W. Graham Weaver.

Garrison—'The House of Glass' with Mary Ryan. Six Star's drama of Marie's main pursuit, unlikely by the law, with a ring at circumstantial evidence.

Lyric—'The Soldier Boy' with Chiton Crawford. John Charles Thomas and Margaret Romberg. A sentimental tonic opera, with a cast of pro-Ally whitewash, and some songs in the grand manner by Cyril Harcourt.

THEATRICAL BAEDERER

Metropolitan—'The House of Glass' with Mary Ryan. Six Star's drama of Marie's main pursuit, unlikely by the law, with a ring at circumstantial evidence.

Lyric—'The Soldier Boy' with Chiton Crawford. John Charles Thomas and Margaret Romberg. A sentimental tonic opera, with a cast of pro-Ally whitewash, and some songs in the grand manner by Cyril Harcourt.

Broadway—'A Lady's Name' with Marie Tompkins. A modern musical comedy, with songs by the 'grand manner' by Cyril Harcourt, very cleverly interpreted by Miss Tompkins and W. Graham Weaver.

Garrison—'The House of Glass' with Mary Ryan. Six Star's drama of Marie's main pursuit, unlikely by the law, with a ring at circumstantial evidence.

Lyric—'The Soldier Boy' with Chiton Crawford. John Charles Thomas and Margaret Romberg. A sentimental tonic opera, with a cast of pro-Ally whitewash, and some songs in the grand manner by Cyril Harcourt.

Broadway—'A Lady's Name' with Marie Tompkins. A modern musical comedy, with songs by the 'grand manner' by Cyril Harcourt, very cleverly interpreted by Miss Tompkins and W. Graham Weaver.

Garrison—'The House of Glass' with Mary Ryan. Six Star's drama of Marie's main pursuit, unlikely by the law, with a ring at circumstantial evidence.

Lyric—'The Soldier Boy' with Chiton Crawford. John Charles Thomas and Margaret Romberg. A sentimental tonic opera, with a cast of pro-Ally whitewash, and some songs in the grand manner by Cyril Harcourt.

Broadway—'A Lady's Name' with Marie Tompkins. A modern musical comedy, with songs by the 'grand manner' by Cyril Harcourt, very cleverly interpreted by Miss Tompkins and W. Graham Weaver.

Garrison—'The House of Glass' with Mary Ryan. Six Star's drama of Marie's main pursuit, unlikely by the law, with a ring at circumstantial evidence.

Lyric—'The Soldier Boy' with Chiton Crawford. John Charles Thomas and Margaret Romberg. A sentimental tonic opera, with a cast of pro-Ally whitewash, and some songs in the grand manner by Cyril Harcourt.

Broadway—'A Lady's Name' with Marie Tompkins. A modern musical comedy, with songs by the 'grand manner' by Cyril Harcourt, very cleverly interpreted by Miss Tompkins and W. Graham Weaver.

Garrison—'The House of Glass' with Mary Ryan. Six Star's drama of Marie's main pursuit, unlikely by the law, with a ring at circumstantial evidence.

Lyric—'The Soldier Boy' with Chiton Crawford. John Charles Thomas and Margaret Romberg. A sentimental tonic opera, with a cast of pro-Ally whitewash, and some songs in the grand manner by Cyril Harcourt.

Broadway—'A Lady's Name' with Marie Tompkins. A modern musical comedy, with songs by the 'grand manner' by Cyril Harcourt, very cleverly interpreted by Miss Tompkins and W. Graham Weaver.

Garrison—'The House of Glass' with Mary Ryan. Six Star's drama of Marie's main pursuit, unlikely by the law, with a ring at circumstantial evidence.

Lyric—'The Soldier Boy' with Chiton Crawford. John Charles Thomas and Margaret Romberg. A sentimental tonic opera, with a cast of pro-Ally whitewash, and some songs in the grand manner by Cyril Harcourt.

Broadway—'A Lady's Name' with Marie Tompkins. A modern musical comedy, with songs by the 'grand manner' by Cyril Harcourt, very cleverly interpreted by Miss Tompkins and W. Graham Weaver.

Garrison—'The House of Glass' with Mary Ryan. Six Star's drama of Marie's main pursuit, unlikely by the law, with a ring at circumstantial evidence.

Lyric—'The Soldier Boy' with Chiton Crawford. John Charles Thomas and Margaret Romberg. A sentimental tonic opera, with a cast of pro-Ally whitewash, and some songs in the grand manner by Cyril Harcourt.

Broadway—'A Lady's Name' with Marie Tompkins. A modern musical comedy, with songs by the 'grand manner' by Cyril Harcourt, very cleverly interpreted by Miss Tompkins and W. Graham Weaver.

Garrison—'The House of Glass' with Mary Ryan. Six Star's drama of Marie's main pursuit, unlikely by the law, with a ring at circumstantial evidence.

Lyric—'The Soldier Boy' with Chiton Crawford. John Charles Thomas and Margaret Romberg. A sentimental tonic opera, with a cast of pro-Ally whitewash, and some songs in the grand manner by Cyril Harcourt.

POLICE COURT CHRONICLE

There's always a string to the joy which comes to Tom Grogan.

Tom says he has never been completely happy, although the police hold slightly different views. Ever since he was a boy, Grogan says, "there's always been a little said in his sugar."

But with prosperity in the air and all men looking as though they had full and plenty, Tom nursed the hope that the gloom which has been trailing him would soon be gone forever.

The evidence of approaching sunshine was emphasized when Grogan found a rather rotund wallet at large on the sidewalk. It was of the species in which twenty-dollar bills nestled and looked as though it might have frequently been the rendezvous of much financial comfort.

The wallet was given the "go-by" by a rather wise-looking cop. He was only a few feet away when Tom fell on it with a death grip. He slipped rapidly through a number of side streets until pure habit carried him to a place over which a happy-faced man in a white coat presided with becoming mien.

Tom told many others present that he never drank alone. A line of thirsty souls stood abreast of him at the bar. Grogan

POLICE COURT CHRONICLE

There's always a string to the joy which comes to Tom Grogan.

Tom says he has never been completely happy, although the police hold slightly different views. Ever since he was a boy, Grogan says, "there's always been a little said in his sugar."

But with prosperity in the air and all men looking as though they had full and plenty, Tom nursed the hope that the gloom which has been trailing him would soon be gone forever.

The evidence of approaching sunshine was emphasized when Grogan found a rather rotund wallet at large on the sidewalk. It was of the species in which twenty-dollar bills nestled and looked as though it might have frequently been the rendezvous of much financial comfort.

The wallet was given the "go-by" by a rather wise-looking cop. He was only a few feet away when Tom fell on it with a death grip. He slipped rapidly through a number of side streets until pure habit carried him to a place over which a happy-faced man in a white coat presided with becoming mien.

Tom told many others present that he never drank alone. A line of thirsty souls stood abreast of him at the bar. Grogan

There's always a string to the joy which comes to Tom Grogan.

Tom says he has never been completely happy, although the police hold slightly different views. Ever since he was a boy, Grogan says, "there's always been a little said in his sugar."

But with prosperity in the air and all men looking as though they had full and plenty, Tom nursed the hope that the gloom which has been trailing him would soon be gone forever.

The evidence of approaching sunshine was emphasized when Grogan found a rather rotund wallet at large on the sidewalk. It was of the species in which twenty-dollar bills nestled and looked as though it might have frequently been the rendezvous of much financial comfort.

The wallet was given the "go-by" by a rather wise-looking cop. He was only a few feet away when Tom fell on it with a death grip. He slipped rapidly through a number of side streets until pure habit carried him to a place over which a happy-faced man in a white coat presided with becoming mien.

Tom told many others present that he never drank alone. A line of thirsty souls stood abreast of him at the bar. Grogan

There's always a string to the joy which comes to Tom Grogan.

Tom says he has never been completely happy, although the police hold slightly different views. Ever since he was a boy, Grogan says, "there's always been a little said in his sugar."

But with prosperity in the air and all men looking as though they had full and plenty, Tom nursed the hope that the gloom which has been trailing him would soon be gone forever.

The evidence of approaching sunshine was emphasized when Grogan found a rather rotund wallet at large on the sidewalk. It was of the species in which twenty-dollar bills nestled and looked as though it might have frequently been the rendezvous of much financial comfort.

The wallet was given the "go-by" by a rather wise-looking cop. He was only a few feet away when Tom fell on it with a death grip. He slipped rapidly through a number of side streets until pure habit carried him to a place over which a happy-faced man in a white coat presided with becoming mien.

Tom told many others present that he never drank alone. A line of thirsty souls stood abreast of him at the bar. Grogan

There's always a string to the joy which comes to Tom Grogan.

Tom says he has never been completely happy, although the police hold slightly different views. Ever since he was a boy, Grogan says, "there's always been a little said in his sugar."

But with prosperity in the air and all men looking as though they had full and plenty, Tom nursed the hope that the gloom which has been trailing him would soon be gone forever.

The evidence of approaching sunshine was emphasized when Grogan found a rather rotund wallet at large on the sidewalk. It was of the species in which twenty-dollar bills nestled and looked as though it might have frequently been the rendezvous of much financial comfort.

The wallet was given the "go-by" by a rather wise-looking cop. He was only a few feet away when Tom fell on it with a death grip. He slipped rapidly through a number of side streets until pure habit carried him to a place over which a happy-faced man in a white coat presided with becoming mien.

Prominent Photoplay Presentations The Stanley Booking Company

ALHAMBRA 12th, Morris & Passyunk Aves. Mae Murray in "The Big Sister" APOLLO 32D AND THOMPSON MATINEE DAILY Frank Keenan "Thoroughbred" ARCADIA CHESTNUT BELOW 16TH E. H. SOTHERN in "THE CHATELAIN" BELMONT 12D ABOVE MARKET Mats. 1:30 & 3:30, 10c Vivian Martin "The Stronger Love" CEDAR 60TH AND CEDAR AVE. Frances Nelson "The Wheel of the Law" FAIRMOUNT 26TH AND GIRARD AVENUE Clara Kimball Young in "THE DARK SILENCE" FRANKFORD 4TH FRANKFORD AVENUE MARY PICKFORD in "HILDA FROM HOLLAND" 56TH ST. THEATRE, MAT. DAILY. LOU TELLEGEN in "VICTORY OF CONSCIENCE" GARDEN 32D & LANDOWNE AVE. Harry D. Carey and Star Cast in "THE WHEEL OF THE LAW" JEFFERSON 39TH AND DAUPHIN STREETS WM. RUSSELL in "THE HIGHEST BID" LEADER FORTY-FIRST AND LANCASTER AVENUE Lou Tellegen and Cleo Ridgley in "THE VICTORY OF CONSCIENCE" LIBERTY BROAD AND COLUMBIA Mae Marsh and Robert Harron in "THE LITTLE LIAR" LOCUST 32D AND LOCUST Mats. 1:30 & 3:30, 10c MARY PICKFORD in "The Public Legend" EMILY STREIBER in "The Wheel of the Law" WEST PHILADELPHIA EUREKA 40TH & MARKET ST. HOUSE PETERS in "THE RAIL RIDER" GIRARD GIRARD AVE. Below 7TH DAILY 2:15, 5:15, 7:15 & 9:15. Feature Photoplays SOUTH PHILADELPHIA OLYMPIA BROAD AND BALDWIN ST. NO PERFORMANCE TODAY. TUESDAY DESTRUCTION OF THE EUROPEAN NATIONS. 1st Chap. of "The Yellow Menace"

Shadow of Mystery All Hands and Eyes! Ever present—Yet ever mystifying. SEE and WONDER at PATHE'S The Shielding Shadow The Wonder Serial Featuring Grace Darmond Leon Bary Ralph Kellard Who—What—is the SHIELDING SHADOW? Bigger and greater than the mystery of THE LAUGHING MASK in Pathe's "IRON CLAW" serial. A real story of flesh and blood people. Work out the solution of the mystery at your favorite Photoplay Theater. By all means see THE SHIELDING SHADOW, the latest serial of the $5,000,000 Pathe Serial program. Ask for it at Your Favorite Theater "The Shielding Shadow" story is being published every Sunday in the North American Produced by ASTRA Film Corporation Directed by Louis J. Gasnier and Donald Mackenzie Released by Pathe Exchange

EVENING LEDGER PHOTOPLAY CALENDAR

Table with columns for days of the week (Monday to Saturday) and theater names (Alhambra, Apollo, Arcadia, Belmont, Eureka, Fairmount, Frankford, 56th St., Garden, Girard, Jefferson, Leader, Liberty, Locust, Market Street, Olympia, Overbrook, Palace, Park, Princess, Regent, Rialto, Ruby, Savoy, Stanley, Tioga, Victoria). Lists photoplays for each theater.

THE WEATHER

Official Forecast WASHINGTON, Oct. 9. For eastern Pennsylvania and New Jersey—Rain and cold tonight; Tuesday partly cloudy and colder; moderate west to northwest winds.

Fair weather has continued along the middle and north Atlantic slope during the last twenty-four hours and temperatures have risen about ten degrees. A temperature of from twenty to twenty-five degrees prevails in those districts this morning. A sharp drop in temperature has occurred in eastern Canada, the Lake Region, and the southern and central parts of the Mississippi Valley and the Central Plains States. The cooling has been accompanied by general rains. Partly cloudy weather prevails in the cotton belt, with light rains at some places.

U. S. Weather Bureau Bulletin

Table with columns for Station, Wind, Rain, Clouds, etc. Lists weather data for various stations.